SECRETARY'S REPORT OF THE I. S. STARBIRD FAMILY ASSOCIATION

September 11, 1922

On September 11, 1922, the I. S. Starbird Family Association enjoyed an outing at the cottage of Mr. and Mrs. Fred F. Prosser at Cundy's Harbor, Harpswell.

The opportunity to visit this delightful spot was thoroughly appreciated by each and every member of the family who were able to be present.

Clams, lobsters, as well as many other good things, were served out of doors under the trees at lunch time.

A most happy gathering, was the unanimous vote of the Association.

MAUDELENA S. HUSKINS, Secretary.

October 14, 1923

The third annual reunion of the I. S. Starbird Family Association was enjoyed this year at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Prosser, Lisbon Falls, Maine.

After the serving of the usual bountiful dinner, a business meeting was held, at which time Mrs. C. D. Smith presided, having been duly elected President, pro tem.

The records of the previous meeting were read and approved.

A telegram from Raymond Prosser and Harold Prosser, expressing their regrets at their being unable to attend the Association's outing, was received with interest.

Upon motion of George E. Huskins, which was duly seconded, it was voted that a committee of three be appointed by the Chair to draw up resolutions in regard to the compilation of the Genealogy of the Starbird Family by Mildred Starbird, these resolutions to be presented to Miss Starbird and a copy of them to be spread upon the records of the Association.

The following members were appointed to serve upon the above Committee: Mrs. Herbert Starbird, Maudelena S. Huskins, and Ralph E. Smith.

I. C. Starbird made a report upon the financial condition of the genealogy project. 215 copies of the Genealogy had been printed at a cost of $95.00, twenty-seven of which had been disposed of at $1.00 each. Mr. Starbird had paid the printer's bill from his own private funds. As a sufficient amount to cover the remaining debt on these books was not available from the treasury of the Association, it was voted that a proper sum of interest on the amount still due to Mr. Starbird be paid to him, if he would allow the debt to stand until the annual meeting of the following year, at which time the matter would again receive attention.

Mrs. Herbert Starbird spoke of the death of Mrs. Georgia Starbird, wife of I. S. Starbird, for whom the Association was named.

The marriage of Mrs. Cora Starbird to Mr. George Keene and that of Leigh Smith to Miss Norma Foster were other changes noted among the members of the Association during the past year. Mrs. Herbert Starbird remarked that while the I. S. Starbird Family Association was Norma-ly up to the mark, now it was Keene-er than ever.

The following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year:

President, Mrs. F. F. Prosser

Vice-President, Herbert Starbird

Secretary and Treasurer, Maudelena S. Huskins

Press Reporter, Mrs. William McCarthy

Entertainment Committee—Edward Prosser, Mrs. Herbert Starbird, and A. M. Blake.

Executive Committee—Walter H. Jordan, Mrs. A. M. Blake.

It was voted that the secretary should send cards to those who were kept from attending the meeting on account of illness.

A letter from Mrs. Abbie Edwards of Altaville, California, relative to several of her family who are located in that state, was listened to with interest.

The Association was very pleased to accept the generous invitation from Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Blake to meet with them at Orr's Island the coming year when, it was hoped, the family of Frank Quimby might be present.

No further business appearing, it was voted to adjourn to spend the remainder of the day in a social way.

MAUDELENA S. HUSKINS, Secretary.

RESOLUTIONS

October 17, 1923.

Whereas, Mildred Starbird, by painstaking endeavor and patient striving, has accomplished the task of preparing a valuable Genealogy of the Starbird family, and

Whereas, she has performed this service voluntarily with only the gratification of a work well done,

Be it Resolved: That whole-hearted thanks and appreciation be hereby extended to her on behalf of the I. S. Starbird Family Association and each member thereof, and furthermore

Be it Resolved: That it is the wish of all concerned that she be reimbursed of all moneys expended for postage and other expenses necessary in gathering the essential facts to complete the very praiseworthy book containing said genealogy, the same to be paid from the treasury of the Association.

MAUDELENA S. HUSKINS,
FLORENCE M. STARBIRD,
RALPH E. SMITH,
Committee on Resolutions.

September 1, 1924

The fourth annual reunion of the I. S. Starbird Family Association was held at Orr's Island at the cottage occupied by the families of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Blake and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Quimby, where fine weather made it possible for the assembled group to enjoy the out-of-doors to the fullest extent.

It was a pleasure for the Association to meet Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Jaques from Westford, Massachusetts, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Quimby and two daughters, Lillian and Evelyn, from Everett, Massachusetts, and Mr. and Mrs. George Starbird and two children, Sumner and Norma, from Medford, Massachusetts, all of whom had been unable to be present at any previous gathering of this association.

A delicious lobster stew and steamed clams, provided by Mr. and Mrs. Blake and Mr. and Mrs. Quimby, were enjoyed at lunch time, together with many other good things, served picnic style.

At the business meeting which followed, Mrs. F. F. Prosser presided.

The minutes of the last annual meeting were read and approved, as was also the report of the Treasurer.

Letters from Mrs. Carroll Starbird and Mr. Charles Connor in regard to the Dover-Foxcroft Family Association were read and accepted with instructions to the Secretary to make replies.

The report of the Committee on Resolutions was read and accepted.

Mrs. Herbert Starbird moved that a gavel be made for use at the meetings, a part of the wood for this gavel to be obtained from Richmond, Maine, the early home of I. S. Starbird, and a part from Lisbon Ridge, Maine, his later residence. The motion was carried. Corrin Starbird and Edward Prosser were appointed to take charge of this project.

It was moved and seconded that a Register be provided each year in order that the Association might have a record of the members in attendance at the meetings.

The unpaid balance of $68.00 for the printing of the I. S. Starbird Genealogy was discussed and it was voted that this amount, together with the interest for one year at the rate of 6%, he paid by assessing each adult member pro rata to the sum of $60.00, the remaining amount to be taken from the Treasury.

A record of the death of Mrs. Elizabeth Starbird, wife of E. P. Starbird, on March 22, 1924, and the birth of Lorraine Norma Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Smith, on July 2, 1924, was to be made by the Secretary.

The following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year:

President, Mrs. C. D. Smith
Vice-President, Herbert Starbird
Secretary-Treasurer, Maudelena S. Huskins
Press Reporter, Mrs. William McCarthy
Entertainment Committee—A. M. Blake, Edward Prosser.
Executive Committee—Corrin Starbird, Mrs. George Keene.

An invitation extended to the Association by Mr. and Mrs. George Keene to meet at their home on Labor Day, 1925, was accepted.

Mrs. C. D. Smith was appointed to represent the Association at the Dover-Foxcroft Starbird Reunion the following year.

A vote of thanks was given to Mr. and Mrs. Blake and Mr. and Mrs. Quimby for their generous hospitality.

After the close of the business session, an original poem written by Mrs. Flora Allen of Lisbon, Maine, appropriate to the occasion, was read by Mrs. Ralph Smith. Musical selections by the Misses Lillian and Evelyn Quimby, Verna Jordan, and Janice Blake, and Master Albert Blake, were enjoyed.

The members of the Association were interested to hear remarks from Rufus Jaques, who has traveled to some extent.

After passing a very happy day, the members of the party separated to meet on Labor Day, one year hence.

MAUDELENA S. HUSKINS, Secretary.

September 7, 1925

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Keene on Lisbon Ridge, about forty persons assembled this day for the fifth annual reunion of the I. S. Starbird Family Association.

At noon the members were invited into the large shed where long tables were found laden with food, although the dish which seemed to be most enjoyed by each one was the big pot of beans which had been baked in the ground under the direction of Mr. George Keene.

About two o'clock in the afternoon the assembly was called to order by Mrs. C. D. Smith, the President, to transact the necessary business of the Association.

The reports of the Secretary and Treasurer having been read and accepted, the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year:

President, Herbert L. Starbird
Vice-President, A. M. Blake
Secretary-Treasurer, Mildred I. Starbird
Press Reporter, Verna Jordan

Executive Committee—Ralph Smith, Sadie McCarthy.
Entertainment Committee—Annie Blake, Gladys Starbird.

A gavel which had been made through the efforts of Corrin Starbird and Edward Prosser, from the wood of an apple tree grafted by I. S. Starbird on the old homestead at Bowdoinham, was presented to the Association at this time, to be used in calling the meetings to order. These members were extended most cordial thanks by the Association for this gift. It was suggested that another gavel be made from wood procured from the later home on Lisbon Ridge.

Rufus A. Jaques, son of Rufus S. Jaques, was voted a member of the Association. Both of these gentlemen were present, having motored from Massachusetts to attend this reunion.

As Mrs. Percy Starbird was ill in the hospital at this time, it was voted to send to her a book as a remembrance from the Association. It was voted to send a card to Mrs. Herbert Starbird, who, too, was unable to attend the meeting.

On February 12, 1925, occurred the death of C. D. Smith and the Association has lost a most respected member. Rufus S. Jaques reported the death of his brother, Gilbert D. Jaques, on June 17, 1925. He was buried in Dunstable, Mass. Also the death of John L. Clarry, husband of Lizzie M. Jaques, in April, 1925, was reported.

Mr. Jaques further reported that the buildings which stood on the site formerly owned by I. S. Starbird in Richmond, had very recently burned, the embers still smouldering at the time of his visit to that spot. This second group of buildings had been built by his brother, Gilbert, now deceased.

An invitation to meet with Mr. and Mrs. Rufus S. Jaques at their home in Westford, Mass., in 1926, was much appreciated by the Association and the matter was left with the Secretary to make all necessary arrangements for this trip.

After extending a vote of thanks to the host and hostess of the occasion for their warm hospitality, the meeting was adjourned and the remainder of the day spent informally.

Respectfully submitted,
MAUDELENA S. HUSKINS, Secretary.

September 6, 1926

The members of the I. S. Starbird Family Association met for their sixth annual reunion this year at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William McCarthy in Lisbon.

A severe rain forced those present to remain indoors where tables were set up and an excellent dinner was served by the hostess.

Soon after dinner Herbert L. Starbird, President, called the members into business session. The report of the Secretary was read and accepted with correction. The report of the Treasurer was read and accepted.

Officers elected for the following year were:

President, Mrs. A. M. Blake
Vice-President, Eloise Huskins
Secretary-Treasurer, Mildred I. Starbird
Press Reporter, Verna L. Jordan

Executive Committee—Ralph Smith, Grace Smith.

It was voted to abolish the entertainment committee.

All changes in the family for the past year were noted and it was voted to send greetings to all members who were unable to be present, with a special letter to the relatives in California, from whom most interesting letters were received this year. Greetings from Mrs. Lillian Starbird and Mr. Edward Starbird were also read.

The matter of sending a representative to the Starbird Reunion at Dover-Foxcroft was considered and it was voted that the officers and executive committee should make arrangements to send a delegate to the 1927 reunion.

Charles Jaques, son of Rufus S. Jaques, was voted a member of the Association. Mr. Jaques and his sons, Rufus and Charles, made a special trip from Boston to be present at the reunion this year. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Quimby likewise made this the special occasion of a trip to Maine.

Mr. Jaques again extended an invitation for the members to meet at his home in Westford, Massachusetts, in 1927. It was finally voted that the Executive Committee should make arrangements for the next meeting place.

A rising vote of thanks was extended to the host and hostess for their generous hospitality and the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
MILDRED I. STARBIRD, Secretary.

September 6, 1926

The members of the I. S. Starbird Family Asssociation were again called into brief business session by Mrs. A. M. Blake to consider the printing of a supplement to the genealogy. It was voted that the added data should be arranged and printed and the bill presented to the Association at the next meeting, all expenses to be divided equally among the members.

It was also voted at this time to present a copy of the genealogy to the State Library and the Secretary was so instructed.

Respectfully submitted,
MILDRED I. STARBIRD, Secretary.

September 5, 1927

The I. S. Starbird Association met for its seventh annual meeting September 5, 1927, at Pine Tree Grange Hall, Lisbon, Maine.

A most bountiful banquet was served at noon in the dining hall. One of the most appreciated features of the banquet was the delicious cake sent by Past-President, Mrs. Ada Prosser, who was unable to be present.

We were especially glad to have with us at this meeting Mr. and Mrs. Willard Starbird and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Starbird of Dover-Foxcroft, also Mr. and Mrs. George Noddin and family of Bangor.

The business meeting was called to order by the President, Mrs. Annie E. Blake. In the absence of the Secretary, Mrs. Florence M. Starbird acted as Secretary pro tem.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and accepted, and the Treasurer's report was also approved.

Greetings from absent members, also from relatives in California and Massachusetts, were read and accepted.

The matter of the supplement of the Starbird Genealogy was discussed and it was voted that the Secretary should have full charge of securing data and having the supplement printed.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Jordan, Mr. Albert Blake, Miss Janice Blake, Master Eugene Jordan, and Master Holman Starbird were accepted as members of the Association.

It was moved and seconded that a nominating committee be appointed to choose officers for the ensuing year and Mr. Fred F. Prosser, Mr. I. C. Starbird and Mrs. Grace Smith were appointed to service on this committee.

It was voted that the Pine Tree Grange Hall at Lisbon be secured for the annual meeting in 1928.

Mr. Ralph Smith suggested a joint meeting of the I. S. Starbird Family

Association and the Starbird Reunion of Dover-Foxcroft, to be held in 1928, and the matter was discussed at some length.
